Career Awareness

Creating relationships with local schools, both secondary & post-secondary, could provide positive human capital results for dealerships. Not only does it have the capability to create more awareness of the career opportunities existing in the automotive industry, but also may help your dealership create a pipeline of potential employees!

Career Awareness Resources

and

Recruiting & Career Events

Click

Click